[Design Concept]
At first glance, the image looks like a colorful depiction of the start of the marathon. However, on a closer look, one can see that it is actually a collage of ordinary clothes. The Tokyo Marathon is a festival that happens only once a year. However, it is supported by many lives of ordinary people with different occupation and lifestyles. Each and every person involved in the Tokyo Marathon is passionate to run, not only on the day of marathon—but every day. This image depicts how passion and enthusiasm unites as one to form the Tokyo Marathon. The marathon’s slogan for 2019 is “Ready?” which expresses the feeling of “Something exciting is bound to happen!” to runners, volunteers, staff, and spectators that have been involved with the Tokyo Marathon in the past, as well as people who have yet to take an interest in the event. The slogan, which reflects the spirit of the marathon, intuitively conveys the feeling of excitement in the air before the start of the race.
The Tokyo Marathon Foundation will begin accepting donations and charity runner applications for the Tokyo Marathon 2019 Charity from Monday, July 2. It will also foster a culture of charity through crowdfunding by recipient program charity ambassadors. Please see the Tokyo Marathon 2019 Charity application guidelines below:

By running together, participants enjoy sharing these values and lifestyles with others, and even when they don’t share them, they enjoy affirming the values of other runners. I support all runners, who enjoy this potential.

▼ Sports Legacy Program
Expectation and interest for power of sports has been on the rise since the day Tokyo was nominated to host 2020 Olympic Games and Paralympic Games. To not end Olympic Games as merely a sporting event, a great deal of attentions is drawn to make the event to have a lasting and positive impact on society.
To support this, the Tokyo Marathon Foundation has implemented the Sports Legacy Program since June 2014, to make sports as basis of happiness. This will create a legacy in bringing brighter future in 21st century for not only Tokyo but entire Japan, regardless of the sports being competitive or recreational.

For details, please see the Sports Legacy Program official website (http://sportslegacy.jp).
